outstanding commitments is much less than for outstanding securities due, in part, to Ginnie Mae's ability to limit commitment authority granted to individual issuers of mortgage-backed securities.

Outstanding MBS securities and commitments were as follows:

	September 30,
Dollars in billions	1999	1998
Outstanding MBS securities	$569.6	$542.2
Outstanding MBS commitments	$ 58.8	$ 22.2

Note H—Concentrations of Credit Risk

Concentrations of credit risk exist when a significant number of counterparties (e.g., issuers and borrowers) engage in similar activities or are susceptible to similar changes in economic conditions that could affect their ability to meet contractual obligations. Generally, Ginnie Mae's MBS pools are diversified among issuers and geographic areas. No significant geographic concentrations of credit risk exist; however, to a limited extent, securities are concentrated among issuers as noted below as of September 30, 1999:

	Single Family		Multifamily		Manufactured
Dollars in billions	Number of Issuers	Remaining Principal Balance	Number of Issuers	Remaining Principal Balance	Number of Issuers	Remaining Principal Balance
Largest performing issuers	19	$390.6	10	$11.6	1	$ 0.5
Other performing issuers	250	161.6	67	4.8	5	0.2
Defaulted issuers	8	0.3	—	—	22	0.1

During fiscal year 1999, Ginnie Mae acquired one single family issuer portfolio with a remaining principal balance of $108 million.

In fiscal year 1999, Ginnie Mae issued a total of $49.3 billion in its multiclass securities program. The estimated outstanding balance at September 30, 1999 was $111 billion. These guaranteed securities do not subject Ginnie Mae to additional credit risk beyond that assumed under the MBS program.

Note I—Commitments and Contingencies

As of September 30, 1999, Ginnie Mae was named in several legal actions, virtually all of which involved claims under the guaranty program. It is not possible to predict the eventual outcome of the various actions; however, in the opinion of management and counsel the resolution of these claims will not result in adverse judgments to such an extent they would materially affect the financial position or results of operations of Ginnie Mae.
